

Finding Old Friends at Walton Firs

There are many people who spent their first night away from home at Walton Firs, under canvas, or visited us to enjoy climbing or archery, or any of the other exciting activities, who have a store of fond memories. Perhaps you stayed in one of our accommodation blocks, the Pembroke, or the Brunswick, or even bunked down on the floor of the Training Hut.

We are keen to keep in contact with anyone who has such memories, and perhaps photographs from those days.

Although the site is now owned and operated by the Walton Firs Foundation you will be pleased to learn that it still enjoys the atmosphere of the old Scout camp. Wood fires are still lit in the fire pits and back woods cooking is still taught in the 'back woods'. We still have the climbing wall and the adventure course, plus the maze, archery and shooting. To this we have added the crate stacking and our caving complex. Soon, funds being available, we will build our site centre building, named after and in commemoration of the work of Patience, Lady Baden-Powell, who was our Founder Patron, and who died in December 2010.

If you would like to stay in touch with us,

please contact us at stella@waltonfirs.co.uk or by writing to us at:

If you would like to support the work we do, and as ever, the activity centre receives no government funding and relies entirely on a small operating profit, monies from grant applications and funds generated by fund raising activities, please consider joining the Friends of Walton Firs at the cost of £20 per year, or become a Life Member for £200. Alternatively you may feel able to remember us in your Will, in which case we can offer a suggested wording for you to discuss with your Solicitor.

We look forward to hearing from you!
